MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Thomas Johnson

SUBJECT :

25X1

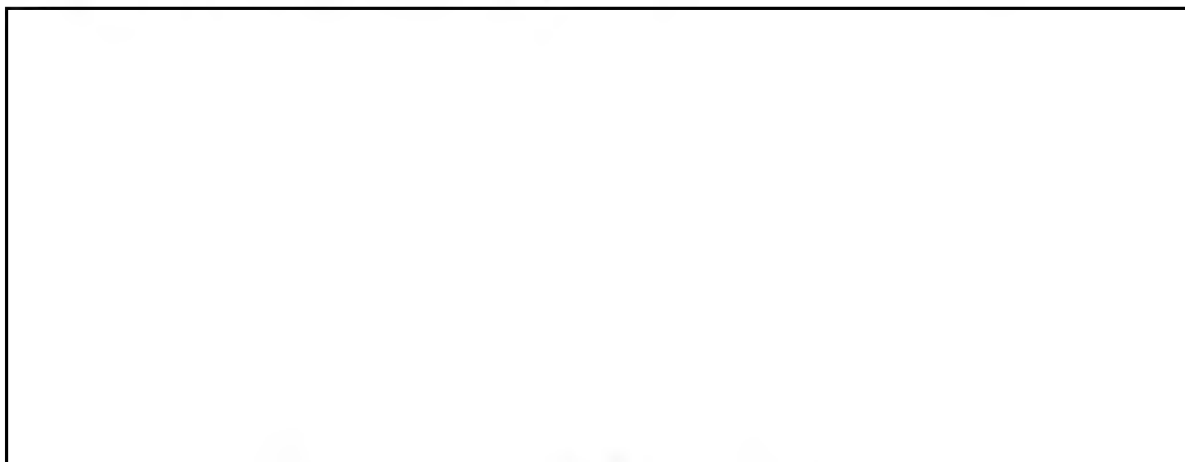

1. We have, at your request, examined our files on the Dominican Crisis and Cuban involvement during the early days. The record is not wholly clear  but we think we have found mention of the incident you discussed with Mr. Helms and with me. The information was contained in a situation report distributed by the Agency to the White House on 30 April 1965. This was one of several hundred situation reports that were issued periodically throughout the crisis to the White House and to other consumers in Washington. They were designed to summarize raw reports  and interpret the situation for policy makers.

3. Incidentally, we have found no other mention of this incident in subsequent situation reports filed by the Agency.

4. We will, during the coming week, go through the laborious process of checking [redacted] and if we come up with any further information, we will let you know by mail or courier. There is, as you know, a weekly courier run to Austin from the White House which we could use.
